

I would like my disgust and displeasure for Sinclair Groups airing of "Stolen Honor", and making it mandatory for the 62 stations to show it. Without showing "Going Up River" &/or "Farenheit 9/11", it is quite obvious where this stems from. I urge all you at the FCC to handle this properly. I also feel the advertisers will also feel some heat over this.

Kyle Klebba